Theory of Change

ACCESS TO JUSTICE			COLLECTIVE ACTION AND PUBLIC PARTICIPATION				RESEARCH AND LEARNING
NETWORKING POWER Networking support	PROVIDE BASIC LEGAL SERVICES Provide paralegal services to meet immediate needs of community members	PROVIDE TRAINING AND SUPPORT Deliver "Understanding the law and government and human rights" workshops	STRENGTHEN DEMOCRATIC ROLE PLAYERS Provide training, technical support and capacity building Train and support issue- specific practitioners, community members, parents, partners		BUILD, SUPPORT AND COORDINATE COLLECTIVE PARTICIPATION AND ACTION Provision of training, technical support and capacity building	COORDINATE ADVOCACY CAMPAIGNS Facilitate community mobilisation to promote and advance the progressive realisation of socio- economic rights Provide legal advocacy and support services	CONDUCT RESEARCH Consult community members and professionals as experts Conduct research	CONDUCT MONITORING Monitor law, policy processes, government plans, budgets and decisions	PRODUCE COMMUNITY DATA FOR ADVOCACY Conduct data collection and coordinate community volunteers to monitor service provision	ACTIVITIES
Legal interventions supported through legal networking	Basic legal services provided through consultations and referrals	Workshop content produced Workshops held Community partners trained	Education and information toolkits produced Workshops conducted Partners receive training	Workshops held Councillors, ward committees, traditional leaders and government officials are active and trained	Collaborative structures set up Partnerships formed Broader groups are engaged and activated	Advocacy resources produced Collective responses for issues identified Grassroots participation is facilitated and supported in the law and policy making process	Focus groups, consultations, and feedback meetings held Technical reports produced	Research conducted and recommendations for law and policy reform prepared Draft submissions and correspondence produced Newsletters and learning briefs produced and information shared	Community monitoring systems set up Social audits conducted	оитритѕ
ACCESS TO JUSTICE Advanced access to justice through the provision of basic legal services and networking legal support			KNOWLEDGE AND AWARENESS Stakeholders and democratic role players understand the law, and feel confident to use the law to advance their rights and take constructive action		STRENGTHENED COLLECTIVE ACTION Sustainable models for collective advocacy developed Increased democratic participation and action		EVIDENCE-INFORMED ACTION Activities are evidence-informed			INTERMEDIARY OUTCOMES
Improved access to socio-economic rights Enhanced responsive governance and accountability A stronger, more active citizenry										LONG-TERM OUTCOMES
THE EQUALITY COLLECTIVE Constitutional rights are realised in our communities Thriving communities collectively participating in a just and caring society										NOISIA